

Commencement Celebration for the Classes of 2020 and 2021 FAQs

1. When will the University Celebration take place?

Sunday, May 29th at 8 a.m. ET. The ceremony is scheduled to run for about 2 hours.

2. When will the HGSE Celebration take place?

Saturday, May 28th at a time to be determined. Likely to take place in the afternoon to allow for travel time to Cambridge.

3. What will happen during the HGSE Celebration?

More information to come.

4. Will there be separate Celebrations for the Classes of 2020 and 2021?

The University Celebration will honor the graduates from the Classes of 2020 and 2021 in a joint ceremony. HGSE is still exploring if there will be one celebration for graduates from both classes or if there will be separate celebrations. Much of that decision will depend on the number of graduates who intend to come to campus for the celebrations.

5. Will I be able to meet the faculty and staff that I have interacted with virtually during the HGSE Celebration?

More information to come.

6. Is there financial aid available for me to come to Cambridge for these events?

The University is committed to make the celebration financially feasible for all members of the Classes of 2020 and 2021. More information about opportunities for aid will be available in the coming weeks.

7. Will accommodations be provided if I am travelling from out-of-town?

The University will endeavor to house all those graduates who request it, but will be limited by availability. You will be able to register for campus accommodations when registration for the events opens in early 2022 and more information will be posted in the coming months.

8. Will I need a cap and gown to participate in these ceremonies?

More information to come.

9. Do I need to register to attend either of the Celebrations?

Yes. Registration is required for each of the Celebrations. More information about registration will be shared in early 2022.

10. Will tickets be required?

Yes. Each graduate will receive a limited number of tickets so that family and friends can take part in celebrating the hard work and perseverance of our graduates. More details on the number of tickets available will be released in December.

11. How many tickets will I receive for each ceremony?

More details on the number of tickets available will be released in December.

12. How will you ensure the safety of guests and graduates?

All visitors to campus including both graduates and their families and guests, should be aware of the University policies in place at the time of their visit. COVID-19 Safety Awareness Training: Protection/Prevention Practices provides current guidance and safety practices. The university understands the need to communicate guidelines and expectations with graduates and families as far in advance as possible.

13. Will guests and graduates need to be fully vaccinated against COVID? Will a negative test result be sufficient to attend?

Currently the University is requiring those coming to campus for Harvard-sponsored events and activities to be fully vaccinated. Graduates and their guests should plan accordingly.

14. Can I pick up a Harvard ID Card when I come to campus?

Harvard ID Card Services is not able to print ID cards for alumni. Only currently enrolled students are eligible for HUID cards.

15. I am located outside of the U.S. Will HGSE provide support to international alumni to receive tourist (B2) visas or an ESTA to travel to the U.S.?

HGSE will provide letters of support for alumni eligible to travel to the U.S. for the Celebrations. If you have family members joining you, please submit a separate form [will be linked to request form] for each person.

16. How long can I remain in the U.S. on a B2 visa or ESTA?

You must check the validity of your B2 visa. You may remain in the U.S. as a B2 for up to 180 days. If you are eligible to enter the U.S. using ESTA, you may remain in the U.S. for up to 90 days.

17. What will happen if I am unable to travel internationally due to restrictions caused by the pandemic?

Unfortunately, the COVID-19 pandemic continues to be a global threat. We recommend that you take the pandemic into consideration when making any travel arrangements. Please make sure to thoroughly understand the cancellation policies on any travel or accommodation bookings before purchasing. In addition, please keep in mind that U.S. Embassies and Consulates worldwide may be closed or operating at reduced capacities. If you are in need of a tourist visa, please check the U.S. Embassy or Consulate website frequently for updates and information.

18. Will any information about accommodations be shared for family members?

The University is currently working to negotiate group rates at several area hotels and will share that information with graduates in the coming weeks. In addition, graduates, families, and guests can find a helpful list of area hotels on Harvard's Commencement website.
