Panel Discussion: The Algebra 1 Question

HKS Wexner Building, 434 AB Conference Room

The Rappaport Institute for Greater Boston at HKS is convening a panel discussion to learn about the complex decision of middle school math offerings that Cambridge has been confronting and especially the question of whether to offer Algebra 1 to some or all 8th graders. The goal of the panel discussion is to learn more about how school districts have been addressing this question both locally and nationally. Some particular questions that the panel might address include: What makes this decision such a challenge? What are its equity implications? What are its implications for students' math trajectories?

The panel will be moderated by Tom Loveless, an education policy scholar. Panelists will include:

Adrian Mims from The Calculus Project, Siobahn Mulligan from the Cambridge Public Schools, Elizabeth Hudson from the Cambridge School Committee, and Chris Huffaker from the Boston Globe.

The Memorial Church of Harvard University

The Memorial Church of Harvard University, part of a vibrant interfaith network of Harvard, is an interdenominational Protestant church in the midst of Harvard Yard that serves as a place of spiritual refuge to the entire community. “MemChurch” stands opposite Widener Library as a visible reminder of the historical and spiritual heritage that has sustained Harvard for nearly four centuries. In addition to our regularly scheduled services, we also offer a variety of programming for students, adults, and children.

Harvard Hillel

Harvard Hillel is a Jewish home on campus that seeks to:

- Welcome students to experience the variety of Jewish identity, tradition, practice, values, culture, and community.
- Inspire and enable Jewish connection, celebration, and action.
- Prepare students to join, create, shape, and lead Jewish communities; strengthen the Jewish people, and live proud Jewish lives.
- Share Jewish sources, traditions, ideas, and innovations, and their relevance in our world.
- Forge connection and engagement with the State of Israel.
- Foster friendship in a nurturing and refreshing sanctuary amid the stresses of student life.
- Engage the unique opportunities of Harvard and make Jewish thought and culture integral in the life of the University.

Whether you're looking to unwind with friends, dive deeper into Hebrew language and culture, or celebrate the High Holidays, Harvard Hillel has got something for everyone. Sign up for the Grad Events newsletter today.
