Reminder to Report Positive COVID Test Results through Crimson Clear

Students should report positive COVID test results immediately through Crimson Clear. (If you use the Harvard Color testing system, this will be done automatically.) Reporting this information is essential for our ability to monitor health conditions in our community, and doing so will prompt Harvard University Health Services (HUHS) to contact you via your Harvard email to provide guidance on treatment options and next steps, including instructions about isolation and notifying your close contacts. You are also encouraged to complete the self-assessment form on Crimson Clear if you are experiencing symptoms or would like guidance after a potential exposure to COVID.

In the event that you must isolate, you must also notify your instructors of any necessary absences from class, though you do not need to share your specific COVID diagnosis. The Office of Student Affairs also stands ready to offer support in contacting instructors and getting access to care if you contact them.

Support for those Impacted by the Floods in Pakistan

Flooding in Pakistan has affected 33 million people and has killed at least 1,325 people. The devastation that the flooding has caused will take many years to recover from and will cost millions of dollars. A group of dedicated HGSE students is asking for the community's support in raising funds to help those affected. Individuals interested in supporting the cause can make donations directly to the organizations listed below that are actively doing relief work in the regions that have been most impacted.

Gutman Library Virtual Book Talk - Sister Resisters: Mentoring Black Women on Campus

Register here

Janie Victoria Ward, Ed.M.'81, Ed.D.'86, and Tracy L. Robinson-Wood, Ed.M.'83, Ed.D.'88, experts in the developmental and identity challenges of young people of color, provide guidance for the faculty, advisors, and administrators (typically white women) who invest in the success of this historically underserved student group. Through case studies, student narratives, and research findings, the authors document the specific deterrents young Black women face daily on campus, from cultural pressures and class bias to racist and misogynistic microaggressions. Suggesting evidence-based strategies that promote healthy resistance to negative social and political experiences, Sister Resisters equips both mentors and mentees with thoughtfully designed, culturally informed skills that can further educational, racial, and gender equality on campus. Please note that all of Gutman Library Book Talks are open to the public and are live-captioned.

Gutman Library Virtual Book Talk: The Voices of the Trees

Dive into a parallel world of the lives of trees where they show us how we humans harm nature, living beings, resources, the climate, being part of the same ecosystem and causing great damage to our planet. The trees teach us to be more caring and collaborative with our environment through six different stories developed in a different country within the Americas in different contexts such as a plaza, a park, a school, a museum, and a nature reserve. This book will help children discover different relevant aspects of global citizenship; a theme that has been recognized as a priority for the curricula of a new educational paradigm. Among these aspects, they will find topics focused on:

- The celebration and integration of diversity.
- Social solidarity with the less fortunate.
- Empathy with others who are different from us.
- Responsibility for planetary sustainability.
- And the validation of feelings of vulnerability and hope.

HSPH Course: SBS 231: Community Intervention Research Methods

SBS231 is an introductory research methods course focused on evaluating community interventions in a variety of settings (e.g., neighborhoods, worksites, schools, community centers or churches). Students will develop skills to design a research proposal, incorporating qualitative and quantitative methods, community perspectives, study design, process evaluation, and using theory to guide intervention development and testing. This course is highly interactive, applying concepts from the readings, guest lectures and students' own experiences, culminating in a research proposal to evaluate a community intervention. Interested students can learn more about the course the instructor in this video.

Ongoing Opportunities & Resources

The Harvard Project on Workforce

The Harvard Project on Workforce is a cross-school, cross-disciplinary research and practice initiative that links the Harvard Kennedy School, Harvard Business School, and the Harvard Graduate School of Education. Our research aims to help shape a postsecondary system of the future that creates more and better pathways to economic mobility and forges smoother transitions between education and careers. Join our Cross-Harvard slack group to stay posted on future of work events across Harvard, job opportunities, and more!

We are recruiting for a number of student part-time research assistant roles for the fall semester. Our research assistants contribute to a range of basic and applied research projects on future of work, education and skills, and labor markets, for audiences of leaders across business, education, policy, and academia. Interested students can learn more and apply for 2022-2023 academic year paid research opportunities here.

Student Conference Fund Application

2022-2023 HGSE Student Conference Fund HGSE is committed to supporting the academic and professional development of students both within and outside of the classroom. The Student Conference Fund seeks to help defray the cost of travel and registration fees for students who are presenting or attending conferences. Students who are presenting are eligible for up to $750 in funding; students who are attending are eligible for up to $500 in funding. All conferences must align with the mission of HGSE.

Teachers for Equitable Education Policies (TEEP) at the Harvard Graduate School of Education

The Teachers for Equitable Education Policies (TEEP) at the Harvard Graduate School of Education is a new student organization whose mission is to engage more EC-12 teachers in education policy and advocacy work. TEEP is grounded in the belief that teachers know what is best for their students and the teaching profession, and as a result, belong in every room where decisions are being made.

TEEP is currently recruiting members and officers from all HGSE programs. More information is available at linktr.ee/TEEPatHGSE. Contact FernandaMarreroHi@gse.harvard.edu for questions.

REUSE RESOURCES

Settling into your home for the academic year? Reuse to save money and resources!

If you're furnishing your dorm room or home for the academic year and looking to save money and conserve natural resources, consider buying needed items second-hand (reused).

On-campus: Harvard Recycling and Surplus Center, 156 Western Ave, Allston. Open every Thursday, 10am – 1pm, this is a great place to pick up school and home items for free. Harvard Recycling collects items from campus renovations, students moving out and staff and faculty switching office spaces and then offers everything up for free to the Harvard community and other local organizations in need. Check it out! If the hours don't work for you, reach out to Harvard Recycling to request an appointment. Also, check out green.harvard.edu/reuse for more university resources.

Off-campus: Check with your city and online. Look up your town or city's sustainability resources, ask around about good second-hand stores and consider searching for items online through Craigslist, Facebook groups and local Buy Nothing groups. If you're having trouble finding something in particular, feel free to reach out to HGSE Sustainability Manager Anne Sargent (anne\_sargent@harvard.edu) for suggestions.

Designed for Harvard Students who want to:

- Develop their leadership and collaboration skills
- Get to know (and appreciate) their peers from other parts of the University
- Stay more centered and productive during their time at Harvard

The Peer Coaching Initiative allows you to:

- Practice the essentials of listening and coaching and earn a skills certificate
- Build a high-trust relationship with an effective talking partner (and "peer coach")
- Talk through challenges with an objective and empathetic listener

Harvard University Peer Coaching Initiative (HUPCI) Registration Open

A non-credit professional development opportunity made possible by the OEDIB's Culture Lab Innovation Fund, the Harvard University Peer Coaching Initiative (HUPCI) connects students with peers they would not meet otherwise and helps them develop essential workplace skills. Enrollment is limited. Learn more at www.convu.com/hupci.

Launch of Student Interest Groups

Recognizing that there may be groups of students who want to convene around a shared interest, but who do not foresee needing funding or planning events, the Office of Student Affairs will be supporting a limited number of Student Interest Groups during the 2022-2023 Academic Year. Potential groups include a running club, a knitting group, an e-sports club, etc. However, OSA staff will only know of student interests through student completion of the Student Interests Survey. Please complete that survey to have your interests represented.

Calling all HGSE students – what are you interested in?

We hope you will take the time to complete this survey! The survey seeks to gather information about some of identities and interests that are important to you. This information will be helpful for us as we lead the creation of student interest groups and put together plans for programming for the 2022-2023 academic year.

Please note that none of the questions are required. The information that you provide will only be used to help inform activities being sponsored by the Office of Student Affairs.

Harvard University Counseling and Mental Health Services (CAMHS)

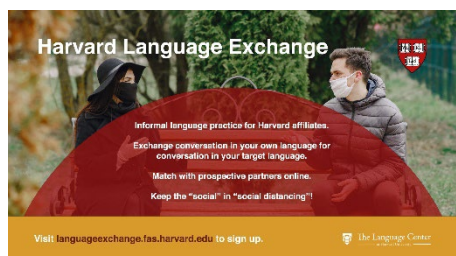

CAMHS is a no-cost support service that works collaboratively across the University to support registered students who are experiencing some measure of distress in their lives. CAMHS provides individual mental health counseling sessions, groups, and workshops that provide a safe space for students to discuss concerns and learn coping skills. Additionally, CAMHS Cares is a 24/7 hotline for students who have mental health concerns or questions of any kind, whether they are in immediate distress or not, on campus or elsewhere. The number to call to be connected to a licensed CAMHS Cares counselor is 617-495-2042.

Review this powerpoint presentation to learn more about CAMHS.

Mindfulness for Students at the Center for Wellness and Health Promotion

As we start the new semester here at CWHP, we are excited to offer a variety of mindfulness programs to support your wellbeing. Subscribe to the monthly newsletter here for more information on wellness offerings, classes, and workshops!

Harvard Language Exchange

Are you tired of having one-way conversations with the language app on your phone? Using the Language Exchange, you can search for prospective language partners who speak your target language, and in turn whose target language you speak. Register for as many languages as you'd like. All you need to sign up is a Harvard ID or XID, which you can create from the link on the homepage. After registering, you can match with prospective partners from the searchable database—an email will automatically be sent to the user(s) you choose, and users can accept or decline matches. Register here.

WAGs

Join Student Support Services Academic Coaches in our weekly WORKING ACCOUNTABILITY GROUPS!

More information and Zoom links on the Hub.

Work Accountability Groups

Student Support Services hosts weekly Work Accountability Groups (WAGs) on Zoom. These accountability groups will hold space for students to gather and work in a supportive environment. Each WAG is 2 hours long and they are hosted multiple times throughout the week. WAGs will start up in the fall semester, so stay tuned for the official schedule. For more information and to join, and please visit here.

CORONAVIRUS: ADVICE FOR TRAVELERS

Certain Harvard-related travel is permitted for fully-vaccinated affiliates. Review our advice for developing a safe travel plan if you decide to travel amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

RELIGIOUS RESOURCES

Harvard Chaplains

Harvard Chaplains

The Harvard Chaplains, a professional community of more than thirty chaplains, represent many of the world's religious, spiritual, and ethical traditions, and share a collective commitment to serving the spiritual needs of the students, faculty, and staff of Harvard University. Learn more on the Chaplains website.

Prayer Space on the HGSE Campus

Longfellow 214 is a dedicated prayer space here on the HGSE campus. Recognizing that not all buildings are open during the weekends, Gutman 440 has been reserved as prayer space on Saturday and Sundays, during regular Library hours.

The Memorial Church of Harvard University

The Memorial Church of Harvard University, part of a vibrant interfaith network of Harvard, is an interdenominational Protestant church in the midst of Harvard Yard that serves as a place of spiritual refuge to the entire community. “MemChurch” stands opposite Widener Library as a visible reminder of the historical and spiritual heritage that has sustained Harvard for nearly four centuries. In addition to our regularly scheduled services, we also offer a variety of programming for students, adults, and children.

Harvard Hillel

Harvard Hillel is a Jewish home on campus that seeks to:

- Welcome students to experience the variety of Jewish identity, tradition, practice, values, culture, and community.
- Inspire and enable Jewish connection, celebration, and action.
- Prepare students to join, create, shape, and lead Jewish communities; strengthen the Jewish people, and live proud Jewish lives.
- Share Jewish sources, traditions, ideas, and innovations, and their relevance in our world.
- Forge connection and engagement with the State of Israel.
- Foster friendship in a nurturing and refreshing sanctuary amid the stresses of student life.
- Engage the unique opportunities of Harvard and make Jewish thought and culture integral in the life of the University.

Please Note: In addition to student events and resources, the HGSE Weekly Newsletter is the official communication channel for important information regarding Commencement.
