ONGOING OPPORTUNITIES & RESOURCES

Join the HGSE Student Admissions Ambassador Program

The HGSE Admissions Office encourages you to join their recruitment of prospective applicants as a member of the Student Admissions Ambassador Program (SAAP). Through the SAAP, HGSE students work with the Admissions Office by serving as resources to prospective applicants and admitted students. Engagement opportunities include serving as student contacts via email and/or phone, speaking to visitors to campus, and participating in on-campus and virtual events, as well as other volunteer activities.

Please complete the 23-24 Student Admissions Ambassador Signup form to help the Admissions team understand how to best connect you with prospective students.

If you have any questions, please contact the Admissions Office at ambassadors@gse.harvard.edu.

Harvard Provost Office's Funding Opportunities for Students

The Wellbeing Project Fund is a one-time, nonrenewable grant of up to $2,000, awarded to selected projects that embrace one or more principles of the Center for Wellness and Promotion's Wellbeing Framework to promote emotional, environmental, intellectual, physical, relational, spiritual, and vocational wellbeing.

To learn more, click here.

The Provost Fund for Student Collaboration (PFSC) supports extracurricular academic/intellectual community-building collaborations that bring together students from at least three Harvard Schools to explore a particular subject. PFSC grants can be awarded up to $4,000.

Visit the website for more information.

Student Opportunities at the Center for International Development

The Center for International Development (CID) cultivates and supports interest in international development at all academic levels. All Harvard students have the opportunity to engage directly with CID staff, faculty, and practitioners through seminar series, research funding & assistant positions, internships, hands-on programs, and special events.

To learn more about their Open House on September 12th, click here.

To read more about opportunities at CID, visit their website.

Looking to Launch a Student Organization at HGSE?

The HGSE Student Organization Recognition Request Form and Online Training are now live!

To launch a new student organization or reactivate a previous one, you'll need to:

- submit a Recognition Request
- and complete the Online Training (~1 hour).

A student organization is defined as a group of HGSE students who unite to promote or celebrate a common interest. The content of any student organized event should address an academic, cultural, or social need at HGSE.

If you'd like to learn more about student organizations, click here.

U.S. Education Guides

HGSE students bring a vast array of backgrounds and experiences to the classroom and community. In recognition that many of our students may be new to the education sector and/or the U.S. context, the Teaching and Learning Lab (TLL) has created a series of resource guides, which provide background information on the U.S. education system. They include:

- Guide to the Organization and Structure of U.S. Education (Pre-K – 12)
- Guide to U.S. K-12 Policy & Administration
- Guide to U.S. Higher Education

Please feel free to reach out to Silvana Rueda at the TLL if you have any questions. Happy referencing!

Harvard University Peer Coaching Initiative

Q: Why practice listening?

A: To be productive, collaborative and also personable, we need to connect with others AND with ourselves.

Participants in the Harvard University Peer Coaching Initiative (HUPCI) report that it helps them relate better to their classmates, colleagues, and collaborators.... and to themselves!

Learn more and register at www.convu.com/hupci.

Mindfulness for Students at the Center for Wellness and Health Promotion

As we start the new semester here at CWHP, we are excited to offer a variety of mindfulness programs to support your wellbeing. Subscribe to the monthly newsletter here for more information on wellness offerings, classes, and workshops!

RELIGIOUS RESOURCES

Harvard Chaplains

Harvard Chaplains

The Harvard Chaplains, a professional community of more than thirty chaplains, represent many of the world's religious, spiritual, and ethical traditions, and share a collective commitment to serving the spiritual needs of the students, faculty, and staff of Harvard University. Learn more on the Chaplains website.

Prayer Space on the HGSE Campus

Longfellow 214 is a dedicated prayer space here on the HGSE campus. Recognizing that not all buildings are open during the weekends, Gutman 440 has been reserved as prayer space on Saturday and Sundays, during regular Library hours.

The Memorial Church of Harvard University

The Memorial Church of Harvard University, part of a vibrant interfaith network of Harvard, is an interdenominational Protestant church in the midst of Harvard Yard that serves as a place of spiritual refuge to the entire community. “MemChurch” stands opposite Widener Library as a visible reminder of the historical and spiritual heritage that has sustained Harvard for nearly four centuries. In addition to our regularly scheduled services, we also offer a variety of programming for students, adults, and children.

Harvard Hillel

Harvard Hillel is a Jewish home on campus that seeks to:

- Welcome students to experience the variety of Jewish identity, tradition, practice, values, culture, and community.
- Inspire and enable Jewish connection, celebration, and action.
- Prepare students to join, create, shape, and lead Jewish communities; strengthen the Jewish people, and live proud Jewish lives.
- Share Jewish sources, traditions, ideas, and innovations, and their relevance in our world.
- Forge connection and engagement with the State of Israel.
- Foster friendship in a nurturing and refreshing sanctuary amid the stresses of student life.
- Engage the unique opportunities of Harvard and make Jewish thought and culture integral in the life of the University.

Please Note: In addition to student events and resources, the HGSE Weekly Newsletter is the official communication channel for important information regarding Commencement.
